COMPETITION RULES:

- All Contest participants must register in the lobby of The Oriental between 8pm and 9pm. Top 10 finalists will be chosen from all entrants to be called on stage. Crowd will decide Top 3 winners.
- No flagrant nudity (Slave Leia- YES, Flesh Gordon- NO!)
- The following costumes may be worn for competition, but may not be judged: purchased costumes, rented costumes, or costumes purchased as a kit. These costumes may be worn on stage for Cosmic Strut but may not be judged for the competition.
- Small children, animals, and other creatures must be under the control of a responsible adult at all times.
- Your costume should be finished before you get to the theater. No sewing, gluing, spray painting, welding, or other construction work will be allowed in the theater. However, final assembly of large costumes and/or props and unexpected repairs will be allowed.
- All participants will be required to sign a release for use of a video and photos.
- For safety reasons, the following is not allowed: live animals with the exception of service animals, substances which might damage or soil other costumes, aerosol sprays, or projectiles.
- No pyrotechnics will be allowed including but not limited to: fire, flash powder, explosives, smoke bombs or fireworks.
- NO REAL WEAPONS ALLOWED. Prop weapons must follow the The Oriental Theater policies and can only be used as part of the costume with restrictions. You are not required to have your weapon “peace bonded” while you appear on stage or in the venue however, you are expected to act responsibly with your prop-weapon. The venue is not the place to practice your presentation's sword play! You may be asked to check your prop-weapon with security prior to the start of the contest if we deem the weapon potentially dangerous to anyone.

- Costumes with electric power requirements need to be self-contained. There will be no access to electrical outlets on stage.
- Costumes that could potentially damage the venue's facilities will not be allowed.
- Surprise the audience, not the Oriental Theater or SCI-FI FREAKOUT staff. If you are planning something completely different, let us know well in advance. All information will be held in the strictest confidence.
- No Whiners! Entrants are presumed to be adults, or under the supervision of one. All SCI-FI FREAKOUT judge's decisions are final.
- The Oriental Theater and SCI-FI FREAKOUT staff have the right to eliminate any entry from the competition on the basis of taste, danger to the audience, building or yourself, violation of any of the above rules, or any other reason deemed sufficient. We do not wish to eliminate anyone, but this protects you and the event.
- Neither SCI-FI FREAKOUT or THE ORIENTAL THEATER accepts any responsibility for any damage to or theft of participant's costumes.
